

Paid admission to the hospital

Order your admission by phone +7 495 781 5576 Hospitalization in medical care is conducted in case the patient needs constant help of doctors and nursing staff. The stay in the clinic involves preparation of a particular course of treatment, continuous monitoring on the part of doctors examination procedures and more. MHS company carries out emergency and planned hospitalization of patients with various diagnoses in our own hospital paid in Moscow in the shortest possible time. Ambulances MHS equipped with the latest technology, they have everything for the comfort of the patient and provide quick and efficient medical assistance during transport. If You or Your loved ones happened any trouble just call us on the phone +7 495 781 5576 Our specialists will come to You as soon as possible first aid will provide admission to our hospital, if necessary pick a different medical center to best suit the character of Your disease. To view information about the hospitals with which we work in the section hospital of Moscow. After placing the patient in the hospital MHS or any other with which we cooperate within the framework of planned hospitalization, our work does not end there. We continue to monitor the quality of Your treatment and comfort of stay in the clinic resolve any issues if they arise. Emergency hospitalization means the transportation of a patient to the hospital in extremely short time. As a rule it is carried out in critical situations with exacerbations of chronic disease heart attacks severe allergic reactions, trauma, burns, complex fractures, etc., regardless of what the hospitals have to deliver patient we do our job as quickly as possible. A separate activity of the company is MHS hospitalization of children which is characterized by its own nuances. Learn about them in more detail and to obtain any other information You can call our phone our consultants. Hospitalization in hospitals of Moscow +7 495 781 5576 around the clock © 2015-2016 Moscow Hospitalization Service Moscow 2-ya Yamskaya str., 11 on the map +7 495 781 5576

Link to article:: Paid admission to the hospital